

LUNETTES KOLLEKTION AND JULIAN ZIGERLI JOIN TOGETHER TO BRING YOU THE LOOK OF LOVE

Berlin-based eyewear specialists Lunettes Kollektion and rising Swiss menswear designer Julian Zigerli have forces to create a distinctive debut – a limited-edition sunglasses accessory that offers instant transformation. The five-piece collection blends Zigerli's fashion-forward zaniness harmoniously with Lunettes' classic inspirations from the annals of style.

These eyewear clip-ons deliver a universal embrace for all frames – in Julian Zigerli's words, "functional, practical, and full of humor." Over-sized mirrored heart-shaped lenses in vivid tones of pink, red, gold, light blue and blue express the look of love in a whole new way. The frame-less form lets you open your heart when you open your eyes. Taking a cue from cartoons, these clip-ons come out swinging – chic and cheeky.

"It was a very comfortable work relationship where the two design houses really merged perfectly, and we created an effortless and beautiful product," said Zigerli of the collaboration. The line debuted during the Paris presentation of his Spring/Summer 2016 collection "White Rabbit," a cute-curious menswear trip through a Japanese-influenced kawaii looking glass.
